LEADERS

GLENN MCDONALD is senior pastor of Zionsville Presbyterian Church in suburban Indianapolis, a congregation he helped organize in 1983. The church has grown from about two dozen adults to more than 2,000 members, and is notable for its small groups, ministry teams, and decentralized style of ministry, which prioritizes lay leadership. ZPC was recently identified as one of America's 300 Excellent Protestant Churches in a study funded by the Lilly Endowment.

Glenn and his wife Mary Sue are Indianapolis natives and are parents of Mark (30), Katy (27), Jeff (24) and Tyler (21). He is an avid spelunker, movie buff, and amateur astronomer. Glenn holds a degree in biology from Purdue University and received his Master of Divinity from Trinity Evangelical Divinity School in Deerfield, Illinois.

Glenn has been a consultant for a number of governing bodies and congregations in the Presbyterian Church (USA) and other mainline denominations, and was part of the national teaching team for Evangelism Connections '98. He is the author of The Disciplemaking Church: From Dry Bones to Spiritual Vitality (2004); Living Beyond the Sanctuary: Discipleship in the Real World (2008); and co-authored Imagining a Church in the Spirit with Ben Campbell Johnson (1999).

ROBERT AUSTELL is the pastor of the Good Shepherd Presbyterian Church in Charlotte, NC. A graduate of Davidson College and Princeton Seminary, Robert is a life-long musician and songwriter. He is also married to Heather and the dad of three girls. Robert will provide our music leadership for the conference.

10TH ANNUAL

PAUL DETTERMAN is currently serving as Executive Director for Presbyterians for Renewal. He is a church musician as well as a pastor, a frequent conference leader in worship and church renewal.

CONFERENCE SCHEDULE

ECPC begins with introductions and worship at 4pm Tuesday afternoon and ends with communion on Friday morning.

MORNINGS Each morning will begin with a continental breakfast on the church campus. Opening worship and teaching with a practical emphasis will follow. Small group reflection on the teaching will complete the mornings. Lunches will also be served on the church campus after small groups.

AFTERNOONS Each afternoon is free for recreation. Choose from many options (see back of this brochure).

EVENINGS Each evening will be different this year with a group dinner planned only for Tuesday. Several optional group activities will be offered Wednesday evening to provide a taste of the local atmosphere. Our group will reconvene Thursday evening at 8pm when the focus will again return to worship and teaching to fill your soul and challenge you.

SPOUSES AND FAMILIES

ARE WELCOME! Reasonable housing and recreation amenities can make this week a great family vacation. Spouses will be included in the programming. Children are also welcome. There is a $25 fee for children 5-10 years of age to cover meals. Children under 5 are free.

CHILDCARE (birth—4 years old) is also available during meetings and worship. You must indicate on registration form when you will use the childcare ministry.

COST: $175 Individual $225 Couple

$25 deposit is due with your registration form.

Registration fees include listed meals & snacks. Housing is not included and should be secured by participants. Housing options are listed on the back of this brochure.
